the Barcelona Affair.

BARCELONA, March 2.—As the news of the action taken by the United States senate in favor of Cuba began to reach the public ear the populace gathered in immense crowds
and listened to impassioned speeches from excited orators, until they came so inflamed with passion that their counsels could not restrain them.
When, proceeding to the United States
consulate, amid cries of "Long live Spain" and "Down with the Yankees," they began throwing stones with which they badly defaced the building. They also tore up several United States flags which fell into their hands.

The mob was charged and dispersed by the police. The anti-American feeling runs very high, and talk of war is freely engaged in.

LONDON, March 2.—A Brisbane special says: "The Spanish American situation is regarded as seriously by the president that he convened a special cabinet meeting last night, though under guise of a dinner at Secretary Olney's.
The conference lasted till after 11. Olney produced important cable in formation, one cable to the effect that the Spanish minister of foreign affairs would insist that the United States should disavow the action of the senate as a condition precedent to continuance of friendly relations.

SPAIN APOLOGIZES.

Disclaims Sympathy with the Act of the Barcelona Mob.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS SAY.

Europe will Have to Unite Against the United States—Another Refers to Senator Sherman as Brother of the Indian Killer.WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—Without waiting for a demand from the United States Spain took prompt steps to make amends for the outbursts at Barcelona yesterday. A cablegram was received from United States Minister Taylor at Madrid this morning. It was dated yesterday. He says the Spanish minister of state expressed deep regret at Barcelona over the affair and offered a complete reparation. The dispatch added that measures have been taken for the protection of the United States legation. This act will doubtless tend greatly to relieve the situation and prevent any serious outcome of the mobs attack on our consulate at Barcelona.The Spanish Minister had early information of the trouble at Barcelona yesterday and hastened to communicate the facts to Secretary Olney, with the assurance that Spain could be relied on to do everything that propriety required to atone for the insult offered our consulate. These facts were indicated to the President and later in the evening to some members of the cabinet at dinner at Olney's house. The best indications are that no serious trouble is anticipated from the fact that everything is running along in its usual formal quiet manner in both War and Navy departments.In view of the prompt action of the Spanish government disavowing the Barcelona incident clearly without official sanction and chargeable to irresponsible students on a holiday, it is improbable that our government will take any further notice of the affair beyond instructing Minister Taylor to acknowledge in suitable terms our acceptance of the Spanish disclaimer.MADRID, March 2.—The Herald says the president of the republic of Ecuador has asked Spain to grant independence to Cuba. Dispatches from Havana say the newspapers there unanimously condemn the action of the United States Senate.LONDON, March 2.—The Pall Mall Gazette's Madrid correspondent says that although Spain recognized the absolute independence of the American senators without admitting the possibility of the intervention of the premier, intends to point out to the American government the injustice of some of the language of the senators and the ridiculousness of the pretensions of the Cuban rebels, whose savage acts, it is claimed, merit the condemnation of all civilized nations. The government, in any case, is preparing for all eventualities. The patriotism of the nation is completely aroused and there is a determination to vindicate the nation's honor.PARIS, March 2.—Commenting on the Cuban situation the Journal says: "Europe one day will have to unite against this method of applying the Monroe doctrine." The Libre Parole expresses the opinion that "The intervention of the United States at every turn is as ridiculous as it is aggravating to Spain, which compelled Bismarck to recede, and it will not retreat before the war, or course, will still be carried on by land mainly."There is no need for us to fight Spain at sea. If our cruisers happen to meet Spanish ships that cannot be evaded, they will have to fight, that's
all. But war on land husbands our resources and ends the struggle much more readily."The Steamer Bermuda Released and Captured Arms Restored.NEW YORK, March 2.—A Herald special from Washington says:The government has acknowledged failure again in the case of an alleged filibustering expedition. The steamer Bermuda has been ordered restored to her owners; the arms and ammunition which were captured on the tug Stranahan will be restored to their owners and the proceedings against the men engaged will probably be quashed. It is due to the fact that proof is lacking.He was amazed at gentlemen trying to do in this country what had been done in Barcelona, yesterday, a rough mob spirit. Spain had hastened to disavow those acts. He denounced as incredible the stories of Gen. Weyler's cruelty in the last revolution. He asked, con-temptuously, who the president of the Cuban Republic was? He was an American citizen, and was now in the United States, instead of taking his chances in Cuba.Turner's remarks were several times applauded, but only by a few members, and the galleries were absolutely silent.Smith (Mich.) replied indignantly to Turner. Bouteille said his position was in favor of delay or deliberation, which was vindicated by the fact that one of the resolutions had been dropped, even as the resolution stood they amounted to a declaration of war.The limit put upon debate expired about 4 o'clock and amidst profound and impressive silence the vote on the house resolution recognizing the Cubans was taken. The resolution passed 235 to 16. When the vote was announced there was immense applause.

The Barcelonians Attar.

BARCELONA, March 2.—As the news
from excited orators until they be-
wiser counsels could not restrain them.
When, proceeding to the United States
consulate, amid cries of "Long live Spain!" and "Down with the Yankees!" they began throwing stones,
their hands.The mob was charged and dispersed
by the police. The anti-American feeling runs very high, and talk of war is freely enlarged in.

cabinet meeting last night, though under guise of a dinner at Secretary Olney's. The conference lasted till after ten. Olney produced important cable
the Spanish minister of foreign affairs
on friendly relations.

The House Recognizes the Belligerof 235 to 16.The Senate Puts Through Significant Emergency Legislation Touching the Navy—Other Business.WASHINGTON, Mar. 2.—The senate passed the bill increasing the navy by one thousand men; for calling out naval militia in case of emergency, and for charter of troop transport ships in case of emergency.The senate passed a bill creating a permanent retired list on three-fourths pay for revenue cutter service.In the senate to-day Gorman introduced a joint resolution directing the secretary of the navy to appoint a board of naval officers to examine a site for a coaling station for United States vessels on Navassa Island, near the coast of Cuba.Hale, who urged the bill, said he did not think war imminent, but in view of all circumstances considered the emergency clause desirable.

House.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Chairman Hitt of the house committee on foreign affairs, after a conference with Speaker Reed, decided to call up the Cuban resolutions in the house to-day.In the house this morning Hitt, of the foreign relations committee, called up the house Cuban concurrent resolution.The first vote on the motion to proceed at once to the consideration carried by 175 to 19.In calling up the resolution Hitt did not offer the last portion pledging the support of congress to the executive in any action the president might take.
Several members were on their feet asking recognition. The strain was intense.Bouteille objected to the consideration of the resolution, but the house decided to take the matter up, 175 to 19. Bailey asked unanimous consent that the debate be extended to five o'clock. The suggestion met with a chorus of noes.At Hitt's request thirty-five minutes were allowed on each side. Hitt opened the debate in a ten minute speech; he said the resolution had been considered with great care by the committee and was matured, ripened, after weeks of deliberation. He pointed out wherein he thought the Senate resolutions unwise. Spain would look on the request to grant Cuban independence as an insolent interference, but could not object to the recognition of Cuban belligerency. Spain recognized the Confederacy before the battle of Bull Run.McCreary (Ky.), Adams (Pa.), Sulzer
(N. Y.), supported the resolution. Turner (Ga.) spoke in opposition. He said that when the Confederacy was recognized by Spain it had possession of every port south of the Potomac and an army against which the combined legions of Cesar and Napoleon would have been unable to cope. When the independence of Texas was recognized the battles of San Jacinto and Santa Anna had been fought.There is no need for us to fight
all. But war on land husbands our

MOON'S PHASES.

Last quarter, 2nd; new moon, 14th; first quarter, 22d; full moon, 28d.

The approach of the comet may have had something to do with the pronouncements with which the senate disposed of the Cuban question.

It is unnecessary to read a Republican out of the party after he has voted with the Democrats and Populists against a Republican measure. He reads himself out by the act.

The McKinley club is the means employed by the people of serving notice upon those who are scheming to suppress their will that they propose to have something to say about it.

The Republican party has always been sound on the money question and on the question of home industries, and it can be relied upon in the future to do its full duty to the people along these lines.

The children born on last Saturday will be unfortunate in not having a birthday anniversary for eight years, and the couple married on that day will be fully as unfortunate as their wedding anniversaries will be far apart.

When the South American provinces were in rebellion against Spain the United States recognised the belligerency of the patriots and there is no reason why the United States should hesitate to do the same in the case of Cuba.

Looking at the situation from any point of view Secretary Olney is the only Democrat that party can use to any advantage in the coming campaign as a candidate for president. He has something of a vigorous foreign policy to back him and he might make a respectable race on that.

The Republican hosts will march to victory under the banner of Sound Money, and to the battle cry of "Protection, Patriotism and Prosperity." Opposed to this sordid phalanx will parade the straggling army of Democracy, broken, dispirited and woe-be-gone, clutching the flaunting flag of free silver, and keeping step to the music of "Desperation, Disaster and Despair."

The Cuban Question.

Chicago Tribune: Sixty-four senators voted on Friday for the resolutions declaring that in the opinion of Congress the rights of belligerents should be accorded the Cuban insurgents, and that the President should offer the friendly services of the United States to Spain for the recognition of the independence of Cuba. Only six senators voted against them. Three were Democrats from the Gulf States and three were Republicans from New England. All of them voted contrary to the wishes of their constituents.

Such an approach to unanimity on the part of the Senate is remarkable.
That body has shown itself inert or factions and unpatriotic as concerns most questions. Its present agreement is evidence that there exists in all parts of the country an active public sentiment which demands that some speedy action be taken in reference to Cuba. To that sentiment Senators have been obliged to yield. They have not been influenced by political considerations, but by a feeling that the people would not endure patiently a longer delay.

This week the house will take up the subject and will either pass the senate resolutions or substitute for them its own, which are somewhat stronger, because they declare that the people of this country are such heavy losers by reason of the existing state of war that this government "should be prepared to protect legitimate interests of Americans by intervention, if necessary."

But whatever the house does should be done promptly. The temptation will be strong to spend a week or more in debate. There are many members who will jump at a chance to make fiery speeches for distribution among their constituents. But the latter would rather have votes than speeches, no matter how eloquent the speeches may be.

If the president has a policy he should put it on one side and adopt instead of it the one which the Americans, speaking through their representatives in congress, say they are in favor of. He cannot afford to wait. The moral sense of the country will not submit to it. The atrocities committed by the Spaniards during the last war are beginning to be repeated now. Crimes as infamous as any perpetrated in Armenia are being committed now, not thousands of miles away, but at the very doors of the United States.

It is hard to assume that the president intends to allow these butcheries of non-combatants to go unnoticed until the end of the dry season, thus giving the Spaniards an opportunity to do by terrorism what they cannot do by war.

The president should do without delay that congress is going to ask him to do, or it will speak in a more decided tone, nor will the people remain silent.

Practically Unanimous.
Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: We have yet to see a Republican newspaper east of the Mississippi that fails to take square ground against the course of the five Republican senators who voted to shelve the tariff bill. They speak right out in meetings. They are ahead of the politicians who let expediency dictate policy.

Most of these papers have engaged at one time or another in a silver discussion.
Most of them, within a year or two, have had occasion to look into the whole silver question. It is not one to be settled on the spur of the moment; not one as to which hasty judgment will be found to be valuable. When, therefore, newspapers talk as the papers of this country have been talking for the last two or three days, it means that a settled opinion has taken the place of a suspended judgment. It means that conclusion has followed argument, and that on the lines marked out the battle is to be fought.

It is encouraging—oh, yes, it is inspiring—to see that practically the Republican press is a unit in condemning the cause of Carter, Mantle, Teller & Co.
The policy of the St. Louis convention is foreshadowed.

Let His Sheep Die.
The following significant and interesting special from Adrian, Mich., appeared some days ago in a Chicago paper.

Charles Daniels, an old and eccentric farmer of Cambridge, Mich., reputed worth $40,000, was arraigned and heavily fined for cruelty to animals, having allowed a flock of sheep to perish for want of food and shelter. He defended himself by saying the Democratic administration had so depreciated the value of wool and sheep it was cheaper to let the animals die than to provide for them.

The Country Editor's Power.
Belvidere (Ill.) Northwestern: "Uncle Josef" Medill, of the Chicago Tribune, has interviewed his country brethren on their presidential preferences and has found them to be about two to one in favor of McKinley. That settles it for the Buckeye statesmen. Uncle "Josef" is a great editor and published a great newspaper, but the country editor, take him altogether, is more powerful than 'Josef' and his paper."

$100 Reward, 100.
The reader of this paper may be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hail's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hail's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonies.

sentence.

Dr. L. Kittinger, a leading physician of Wilmington, Del., asked the proprietor of Brazilian Balm to send him a cure in both cases. It is a remarkable remedy."

THE GEBHART FIRE.

DESTRUCTION of the Palace Business Block—Loss Placed at $45,000.

FIRE CAUSED BY THE ELECTRIC WIRES.

Incidents of the Conflagration—Henry G. Custer Seriously Injured—Was Caught Under the Falling Wall—Amount of Insurance.

Saturday evening between 4:30 and 6 o'clock the A. F. Gebhart Palace business block, at the corner of North Water and Packard streets, was completely destroyed by fire, together with a stock of general merchandise valued at $34,000.

The three-story brick building and fixtures Mr. Gebhart valued at $32,000.
The insurance on the building was $6000, on the stock $5000.

The fire broke out, it is supposed, in the southeast corner on the second floor, and was caused by some defect in the electric wiring. The building had a private electric lighting system which had been in successful operation for several years. Just before the fire the lights had been turned on. Suddenly they grew dim and then they went out.
A moment later there was a cry of fire, and in that brief time the entire second floor was a mass of furious flames which nothing less than a flood could have extinguished. The entire fire department responded promptly to the alarm which was sent in from the store, but when the firemen arrived at the store corner they saw at a glance that it would be next to impossible to prevent the destruction of the block. All they could do was to throw water and that duty they performed like trained soldiers.
Chief Devore had general charge of the men, some of whom were still at work at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

Custer's injuries were of a serious nature. His skull was fractured and he had a bad cut on the top his head and one under the eye. His right hip was fractured, his shoulder was badly scalded by steam and his body was badly bruised. The physician is unable to say what the outcome of the man's injuries will be but he has some hopes of his recovery.

To fortunately there was not much fire in that part of the place. When this happened the big building was almost entirely gone and the firemen started at once to get the man out of his dangerous position. There were many who were ready to go into the place and help but it was an hour after the wall fell before the men were able to get Custer out.

Part of the north wall was still standing but it looked like it would fall every moment. When it was learned by the spectators that a man was buried in the ruins and they saw that the wall was likely to fall on those who were trying to rescue him there was great excitement. A long ladder was put against the wall as a brace and partly protected those who were working under it. When the firemen thought they had Custer free they found that a big timber pinned down one leg. They were unable to move it by hand and a rope was secured and tied around it so that it was moved enough to free the man. When Custer was carried out the front window the crowd cheered and crowded around the injured man so that the police could hardly make way for him to be carried away. He was taken to Gile's cigar store and there Dr. W. J. Chenoweth, who had been sent for, gave him medical attention.

The man was made as comfortable as possible. Dr. Chenoweth examined his injuries and decided that the man had better be taken to his home before any attempt was made to dress his wounds. A wagon was sent for and Custer was taken to his home,

No. 450 South Main street.

The fire was so rapid in its progress that Mr. Gebhart and none of his help could save any part of the contents except the cash and the books. The help in the store and the customers who were making purchases barely had time to escape, and some of the salesmen and salesladies in the confusion failed to get their overcoats and wraps. Dense smoke filled the large room and the roar of the furious flames above with the fear that the floor might fall at any moment tended to cause general alarm, and everybody sought safety outside. It was well they did, for in a very short time the whole lower floor was on fire. And then came the fear of injury from falling walls. The excitement increased as that possibility was suggested, and those who heard it made an effort at once to get out of range.

The front of the big building was constructed of concrete and was very handsome in appearance. The block in fact was the pride of the north end, and in its destruction everybody in that section of the city felt a personal loss. The collapse of the walls came speedily. They fell outward making a noise heard blocks away. The concrete front with the brick accompanying it filled Water street from walk to walk, breaking the street railway trolley wire, the guy wires and covering the tracks so as to impede travel.

Mr. Gebhart and his son, like the crowd, could only look on and view the work of destruction.

Only a portion of the walls remain standing. The foundation walls are not injured. They can be used in the reconstruction of the block. It is the purpose of Mr. Gebhart to rebuild at once.

W. H. Hubbard's Loss.

The frame building just north of the Gebhart store was occupied by W. H.
Hubbard with a stock of drugs. The first Mr. Hubbard knew of the fire was when a man rushed past the store and gave the alarm. Mr. Hubbard looked out of the door and saw that the brick building was in flames. He took some papers and books and locked the store, not thinking that his place would be damaged; but only a few minutes after he was out the north wall fell and crashed through the roof. Almost the entire stock was a total loss, being destroyed by the falling brick and by the water. Mr. Hubbard places the value of his stock between $2500 and $3000.

He had an insurance of $1700 in different companies as follows: Merchants', $500; Hanover Insurance Co., $500; Broadway Insurance Co., $500; Glens Falls, $200. Mr. Hubbard says he may be able to get some of his stock out, but what is saved will not amount to much. He will open again as soon as he can find suitable quarters.

How Custer Was Injured.

When the news of the fire reached the office of the Central Union Telephone company Henry G. Custer, a lineman, was sent at once to the place to save, if possible, the telephones in the building.

When he reached the fire he saw that it was impossible for him to get to the phone in the Gebhart building, so he went to the drug store. Mr. Hubbard had locked the door and told him that it was unsafe for him to go inside, but the man insisted and the door was unlocked again. Custer got the telephone off the wall and had it in his arms when the north wall fell and crushed through the roof of the little frame building. He was buried under the brick and lumber,

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

Calendar for the Present Week for the Various Meetings.

Monday at 2:30—Sorosis. This class is making a study of the religions of the world. This work occupies half of each session. During the other hour current items are given and articles from "Self Culture" are read and discussed.

Tuesday at 2:30—Chautauqua. This is the regular work as laid down by the Chautauqua society, and is what is known as the American year in that course. Since interest in our ancestral history has been so thorough, awakened by the various patriotic societies which are so popular, it would especially recommend itself to us all.

Tuesday at 7:30—Psalms. This division is a very valuable one to the club, as it offers an opportunity for work to those who are in business during the day. They have been studying the Britie poets, but have lately taken up the American birds. Their lesson this week is on E. A. Poe. They also devote a portion of each meeting to current items.

Wednesday at 2:30—Shakspeare. This division has just finished "Two Gentlemen of Verona." Under the leadership of Mrs. Philbrook they begin this week a somewhat exhaustive study of the history of English literature from its beginning to the close of the Elizabethan era. This division is doing strong work.

Thursday at 2:30—the Art Court. This division is studying art for the first part of the afternoon and Faust for the last hour. This latter work is under the direction of Miss Coolidge, whose assistance is especially valuable as she was a pupil of one of the best Goethe critics of the day. The subject of this week's art discussion is the division of instructors in the study course of American art.

Thursday at 7:30 comes the regular monthly meeting of the club. This month the evening division furnishes the entertainment, for which reason the meeting occurs in the evening.

Monday the president, Mrs. Eugenie M. Bacon, goes to Peoria to address the Woman's club of that place.

The recitations given by Mrs. Kinney were grand and everybody was pleased. ## A DRUNKEN MAN'S AIM Froves Fatal to His Aged Mother and to Himself.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., March 2.—Michael Kramer, 25 years of age, shot and killed his aged mother and then put a bullet into his own brain yesterday. Death was instantaneous in both cases.

The Kramer family consisted of the murdered woman, the suicide and a younger brother named John. They had been entertaining a party of friends from New York. Plenty of drink was supplied. Late yesterday afternoon the party became hilarious and Michael made frequent trips back and forth to a nearby saloon. Previous to making the final trip he had an altercation with one of the guests from New York, named Andrew Ryper. The quarrel had not been settled when Michael went out for some more wine. On his return his mother followed him into the kitchen.

Everybody in the house professed ignorance as to what transpired there. They say they were alarmed by hearing two pistol shots in rapid succession. On rushing into the kitchen they found mother and son stretched on the floor, a few feet apart, gasping for breath. There were bullet holes under Mrs. Kramer's left ear and near her son's right eye. In his hand he still held a smoking revolver. They were both dead before the police arrived.

BALLINGTON BOOTH

And His Wife Issue a Statement
to the Press.

THEY RECOGNIZE A HIGHER CALL

Than that from London, and Will Continue to Labor for the Strengthening of Righteous Principles and the Extending of God's Kingdom.

MONTCLARE, N. J., March 2.—Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth last night issued the following statement
to the press:

"Being continually pressed upon all sides to state definitely the action we shall take in the future, we now desire to make known our present position.

"First. We did not wish it said that we had taken the Salvation Army; that we had, through ambition, swept the organization in this country out of the general's hands, or that we had taken property which we had acquired while owing allegiance to him; furthermore, we did not want to influence those under his authority through their loyalty and steadfastness to us, nor have it said that we had proved faithless to a trust reposed in us, so far as the administration was concerned. We had no alternative but to accept our dismissal, which closed our relationships and negotiations with London. Since then we have allowed those in authority full scope, neither appearing in public nor counselling any beneath their command to leave.

"Second. We cannot, however, close our eyes to the fact that we have another allegiance, we are not our own and cannot dispose of our lives and influence to please ourselves. God has called us to work for him. We dare not, therefore, remain idle. We have also at heart the interest of our country that so loudly called to us to continue in action. Seeing that the people of the United States of America in an urgent and unmistakable manner have voiced their desire that we should inaugurate a movement affording us an opportunity to continue our labors for the uplifting of the uncherished and unchristened people of our country; and as there appeared to us no alternative between this course and retiring from public service, we have decided upon the latter action. It is farthest from our desire, that such a new and independent movement should be hostile to the one we labored so long and so hard to upbuild. The United States with its vast and ever-increasing population should offer ample room for such effort without any unchristian warning.

"Third. It would be premature here to decide upon the details of our future labor. We seek above all else God's leading. An organization cannot be formed in a day, and one that owns Christ as its head cannot be formulated on the opinions and enthusiasm of the moment. We shall probably have but a small beginning, and gain step by step.

"Fourth. We shall assuredly, under any circumstances, stand for the principles we have hitherto upheld, having for our aims the saving of souls, the unity of effort in work, scriptural plainness and self-sacrifice, and simplicity and distinctiveness of dress that speaks of out-and-out Christ following.

"Fifth. We cannot, at this perplexed juncture, overtired in body and over-strained in nerve, give the date when we shall be ready to commence public work. Indeed, it will be seen to be wise to do nothing in haste lest it should be ill-done; but to do all with forethought, that it may be well and permanently done. We are most anxious not to act on impulse or under strong pressure, but as God shall guide us through circumstances, and with cool, calm judgment as to what we believe to be right.

"In closing, we desire to assure all who are interested in this matter that we have earnestly consecrated our lives to the service of strengthening righteous principles and extending God's kingdom in America.

AROUSED TO A STATE OF PANIC

By an Outbreak of Smallpox in the Workhouse.

DAYTON, O., March 2.—This city was aroused almost to a state of panic last evening by the announcement that there were 25 well-defined cases of smallpox in the Dayton workhouse.
There are over one hundred prisoners in the institution besides Supt. Martin, his family, the guards and other employees.

At six o'clock last evening the directors, Messrs. McKenna, Wifh and Kirschner, were besieged in every way for relief. The prisoners have been divided and extra guards were in demand for both the inside and outside of the place. The first death was that of Ansel Amos, colored, age 12, from Springfield, who died yesterday morning and was buried yesterday afternoon.

Death Between Life and Death.

BOSTON, March 1.—At 2:30 o'clock this morning Private Secretary Thomas received word from Gov.
Greenhalge's residence in Lowell, that the change in the governor's condition that had been looked for had come. It showed the governor hor-ered between life and death. If he can sustain the change his recovery is assured.

At seven o'clock to-night the condition of the governor had not materially changed.
